

Fourth Monkey
Actor Training Company

Prevent Duty

What is Prevent?

Prevent is part of the counter-terrorism strategy CONTEST implemented by the Government. This aims to individuals being brought into extremist and radicalism ideals.

Recognising the signs.

As part of Fourth Monkey's commitment to safeguarding our students, staff will be directed to the governments PREVENT e-learning course and further information through their website:

<https://www.elearning.prevent.homeoffice.gov.uk/edu/screen1.html>.

This initial course provides important foundation information and knowledge surrounding the risks of radicalisation. There are also two further courses to access on this site on Referral training and awareness for those who could contribute or sit on a Channel Panel.

Advice and guidance can also be found on the following sites:

<https://www.islington.gov.uk/community-safety/prevent>

<https://educateagainsthate.com>

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/channel-guidance>

What if you have a concern?

Should you have a concern for an individual who you believe is at risk of being exploited or radicalised, please speak to the Welfare Officer and they will speak advice from the local Prevent coordinator.

If you have immediate concerns for an individual, you can contact the non-emergency Police line on 101. You can also contact the below.

Islington Prevent Coordinator

Beverley Thomas

beverley.Thomas@islington.gov.uk
/ 02075273018

Islington Council

Adult Safeguarding Team

prevent@islington.gov.uk
/ 02072260992